"I'M GLAD I KILLED MY MOTHER," CRIES YOUTH

Vicious Prisoner, Facing Court for the Crime, Regrets He Failed to Kill the Family.

New York, April 10.—"I killed my mother and I am glad of it. I would be even more glad if I had murdered the entire family. Why shouldn't I have slain them?"

This was the cool, calm confession made by Bernard Carlin, a convict, not yet of age, when he was arraigned before Magistrate Furlong in the Gates avenue police court, Brooklyn, yesterday. He had shot down and instantly killed his parent, Mrs. Susan Carlin, in her home, No. 687 Quincey street.

"I never knew what a mother's love was," he went on. "The stray dog in the street has led a better life than I have and it was all my mother's fault. I never knew the love of a home—never knew the meaning of boyhood."

"My mother brought me into the world and then forgot me. At the age of five she sent me to an orphan asylum. There they taught me to steal, and when I emerged at the age of eight I had learned but one thing—crime."

"I was free less than a year. Then I was sent back and came out at the age of sixteen."

"I stayed out two years and then I was sent back. My mother knew the conditions, but she did not try to help me. I came out of the Napanoch reformatory in Ulster county Monday. Before they turned me loose I dreamt that I was to be sent back. In the same vision I shot my mother and my brother."

The physicians say I will go blind from confinement in four months. I am gradually losing my sight, so what is the use of living, anyway. I am prepared to die to-morrow—to-day—at once."

As Carlin was being led toward the court prison, he turned to the magistrate and said:

"Let them kill me quick. Why should a mother's love want to live for an instant?"

GIRL BREAKS UP JAIL DELIVERY.

Despite Her Efforts Six Prisoners Escaped in Murphysboro, Ill.

Murphysboro, Ill., April 10.—Miss Zora Hansen, seventeen years old, daughter of Sberik Hansen, interrupted jail delivery during a storm early yesterday. She was awakened by the storm and, glancing out the window, saw prisoners climbing down past her window. She seized the foot of a man and held on while she screamed to her parents. Her mother went to her assistance and held to the prisoner, while Sheriff Hansen rushed into the cell room and prevented seven prisoners from leaving. Six prisoners had escaped through a window from which a bar had been pried. Four of the fugitives are negroes.

TO WIPE OUT ANARCHISTS

President Sends Message to Congress Telling

OF NEED OF NEW LAWS

Arch Criminals, He says—Postal Authorities Can Bar Printed Matter from the Mails, But Federal Law Is Weak.

Washington, April 10.—In one of the shortest messages which he has as yet transmitted to Congress, President Roosevelt yesterday called the attention of that body to the necessity for further legislation on the subject of anarchy. With the message he transmitted a report reviewing the legal phases of the question by Attorney-General Bonaparte. The message reads as follows:

"To the Senate and House of Representatives:

"I herewith submit a letter from the department of justice which explains itself. Under this opinion, I hold that existing statutes give the president the power to prohibit the postmaster-general from being used as an instrument in the commission of crime; that is, to prohibit the use of the mails for the advocacy of murder, arson, and treason; and I shall act upon such construction. Unquestionably, however, there should be further legislation by Congress in this matter."

"When compared with the suppression of anarchy, every other question sinks into insignificance. The anarchist is the enemy of humanity, the enemy of all mankind, and his is a deeper degree of criminality than any other. No immigrant is allowed to come to our shores if he is an anarchist, and no paper published here or abroad should be permitted circulation in this country if it propagates anarchistic opinions."

(Signed) "Theodore Roosevelt."

"The White House, April 9, 1908."

Besides his direction to the postmaster-general to exclude from the mails such publications as La Question Sociale the president in his letter to the attorney-general asking for an opinion on the legal phases of the subject says he has had the particular case called to the attention of the governor of New Jersey by Secretary Root, that the governor may proceed under the state laws.

The opinion of the attorney-general embraces a discussion of the whole subject from many legal angles. His first conclusion that the article in question, which advocates the use of arms and dynamite in annihilating police and soldiers that anarchy may prevail, constitutes a "seditious libel" and "is undoubtedly a crime at common law."

Mr. Bonaparte declares that there is no federal statute which makes such publications an offense against the United States, and that the federal courts consequently have no jurisdiction in the matter. That there is full power in the possession of Congress to make such publications criminal the attorney-general asserts, and quotes Chief Justice Fuller of the Supreme court, and Justice Field, as authority.

The greater portion of his opinion is devoted to the question of whether, in the absence of any legislation by Congress, the postmaster-general has the right to exclude such publications. On this point his conclusion is:

"The postmaster-general will be justified in excluding from the mails any issue of any periodical, otherwise entitled, to the privileges of second class mail matter, which shall contain any article constituting a seditious libel, and counselling such crimes as murder, arson, riot and treason."

PATERSON MAYOR ASKS FOR A LIST OF REDS.

Names to Be Turned Over to Federal Government.

Paterson, N. J., April 10.—Mayor McBride has called on Chief of Police Bimston for a list of the names and addresses of all persons who are known to be members of the anarchist group in this city. It is believed that the mayor will turn over this list to the federal government, which is said to be seeking all the information possible about the anarchists throughout the country.

According to the police there are not more than about twenty-five anarchists now in Paterson.

WAS PERKINS, NOT POND.

Suicide at Los Angeles Was Not Rutland Man, as Reported.

Rutland, April 9.—A letter received by Dr. E. M. Pond of this city states that the man who committed suicide at Los Angeles, Cal., recently was not his brother, Dr. E. A. Pond, as was at first intimated. The letter was accompanied by a clipping from the Boston Globe which stated that the man was believed to be Dr. Pond. It read as follows:

"Seeing this piece in the Globe I am writing you to inform you that this body has been identified as Everett A. Perkins of Farmington, N. H. He had written home telling his parents that he was about to sail for China, and had sent his clothes home. By the tone of the letter they became suspicious and on seeing the piece in the paper began an investigation at once and received a telegram stating that the body had been identified as that of Mr. Perkins. Perhaps you may hear from his people, but I thought I would enlighten you, as I realize how you feel over your brother, for I have an uncle who has not been heard from for years."

ACTRESS GIVEN FULL AWARD.

Henrietta Lee Wins Heavy Damages in Her Suit Against Managers.

New York, April 9.—A verdict of $4,700 was awarded by a jury in the supreme court yesterday to an actress, who was discharged by a theatrical manager, because she refused to appear on the stage in tights.

The plaintiff was Henrietta Lee Morrison, who is known on the stage as Henrietta Lee, and the defendants, Hurlig & Seamon, proprietors of a Harlem burlesque theatre.

Miss Lee and her husband, Charles P. Morrison, were engaged by Hurlig & Seamon for a season in a musical comedy under a contract, which provided that they were to receive $8,950. At the end of three months the manager directed Miss Lee to make certain changes in her costume which would necessitate her appearing on the stage in tights. When she refused to make the changes directed she and her husband were discharged. They brought suit for breach of contract, and a jury, after fifteen minutes' deliberation awarded them damages to the full amount sued for, minus the amount they earned after their discharge.

GRAND TRUNK MEN AT ODDS

Story Meeting of the Directors in London, and

MISMANAGEMENT CHARGE

Report Is Adopted, However—One Irrate Stockholder Had Branded Is as a "Miserable Document" During Hot Debate.

London, April 10.—The usual cut and dried proceedings at meetings of the Grand Trunk railway of Canada were varied at yesterday's semi-annual gathering of the directors of the road by heated charges of mismanagement, and the report of the board was only adopted after earnest appeals for unity of interest for the company's credit had been made.

Sir Charles Rivers Wilson, presided at the meeting and made a speech which lacked the usual optimism and was mostly taken up in apologizing for the financial unsatisfactory report, which an irate shareholder characterized as a "miserable document." Sir Charles attributed the Grand Trunk's troubles to the recent financial disturbances, together with the "exceptionally bad harvest in Canada," a depression which, he was sorry to say, still prevailed.

He thought that this was merely a temporary check, and hoped that a thousand miles of the company's portion of the Grand Trunk's line to the Pacific will have been completed by the end of the present year. It was proposed to acquire land in certain districts along the line of the railroad and bonds would be issued to shareholders on preferential terms to raise the necessary money.

A. W. Smithers, in seconding the motion for the adoption of the report, appealed for unity so that the credit of the company would remain unimpaired. He added that there were plenty of enemies of the road in Canada who would magnify any differences that might arise.

This statement brought the shareholders present to their feet with sharp criticisms of the management of the company and heated expressions of dissatisfaction with the expenditures were heard. The clamor of the opposing factions was punctuated with dissenting remarks from some of the men present.

One shareholder urged the appointment of a committee at Montreal to run the

HOW TO TAKE THE PLEDGE AND KEEP ON DRINKING.

Chicago Policeman Has a Scheme That Pleases Him.

Chicago, April 10.—Patrick Barry, a patrol wagon driver, was before the police trial board Wednesday charged with intoxication and making a false official report. In proof of his total abstinence from the use of liquor, Barry submitted documentary evidence in the shape of a pledge he had signed some time ago. Inspector McCarr also produced a pledge which Barry had given him personally.

"Why were the two pledges secured?" asked Commissioner McKinley.

"I caught Barry drinking some time ago," explained the inspector. "I found he had signed two pledges. Barry excused his condition by explaining that he had signed two pledges and thought it would do no harm to break one of them."

"Thereby keeping the other one intact," observed Mr. McKinley. The commissioner discharged Barry.

RETIRED BUSINESS MAN IS IN FAVOR OF NEW THEORY

One of the most interesting statements made recently concerning the much discussed Cooper theory, that has spread over the country during the past year, is made by E. H. Lambert, a retired business man, whose home is at 115 Francis Street, Everett, Mass.

Mr. Lambert has this to say in connection with Cooper and his medicine: "Some time ago I read an article about this man Cooper, in which he claimed that stomach trouble was directly responsible for most ill health. He went on to say that, although his medicine did nothing but get the stomach in sound condition, it would, in many cases, remove kidney and liver trouble and various other ailments. He argued from this that the stomach was the main cause of sickness, and stated that the success he has had with his medicines was due entirely to this fact."

"I am now fully convinced that this theory is correct, and believe Cooper has a really remarkable medicine, judging from my own experience. 'I have been a sick man for five years. Three years ago I was told by a physician that I had Bright's disease of the kidneys. I have treated constantly for this trouble since, without results. After reading the article I have mentioned, I purchased some of this man Cooper's medicine. I have been astounded by what it has done for me. I was relieved to some extent within 24 hours. Today my health is better than for five years, and so far as I can tell, my kidney trouble has disappeared."

"My wife, who had stomach trouble for some time, tried the preparation after noting its action in my case, and her improvement is fully as marked as mine. She now eats heartily three times a day without any distress whatsoever. Her nervousness has also left her. I certainly believe this man's success is fully justified, as he undoubtedly has a wonderful medicine."

We will gladly describe the remarkable record made by the Cooper medicines to all who wish to know of them. —C. H. Kendrick & Co.
